

Markesan Historical Society Gazette

October/November/December 2014

They say pictures tell the story. During the October meeting a pictorial review was shown of the 23rd Annual Heritage Day at the Grand River Valley Museum held on September 21, 2014. The sampling of photos shows of a good look into the past.

Members were also treated to a review of the Society's new website. This is a big step forward for the Society, as people can find us simply by going to the world-wide web at www.markesanhistoricalsociety.org. An email address has also been established--markesanhistoricalsociety@gmail.com

November Meeting

~~~~~
Gayle Schultz, Cindy Boelter and Marlene Scott attended the 8th Annual Local History & Historic Preservation Conference at Elkhart Lake in October. The ladies gave a report of new things at the state level and also ideas that can be implemented here at our own society and museum.
