

San-ta lands up-on the top of ev-ry-bod-y's house Slips him-self right down the chim-ney Je-sus came up-on a plan-et prim-i-tive at best Al-tered ways to look at things put qui-et as a mouse, Leav-ing pres-ents Christ-mas morn-ing there be-neath the tree cul-ture to the test Since that time the hu-man view-point has n't been the same A

Snack-ing on his milk and cook-ies, quite a sight to see Then ZIP! he goes up to the roof to whole new way of life to-geth-er start-ed in his name He gave His life up-on a cross to climb up-on his sleigh, Gai-ly call-ing to his rein-deer "Up up and a-way!"

die be-cause he changed The way that peo-ple looked at sin; per-spec-tives re-ar-ranged

Off he goes to man-y oth-er des-tin-a-tions known to be the homes of true be-liev-ers
Now we sing of how He came to us on Chris-mas Day Giv-ing pres-ents to each oth-er who this year have shown kind-heart-ed-ness to oth-er folks from all a-round the earth And in His name we say "The Sea-son's Greet-ings" real-ly mean-ing let us all en-joy The Cel-e-brate this ver-y day the ba-by Je-sus birth; And Bles-sed Sav-ior's birth.

Christ-ian spir-it San-ta brings to ev-'ry girl and boy The ev-'ry girl and boy.
