This show will perhaps be my most eclectic show yet. It will feature 3 pieces of up-cycled clothing that I've collaborated on with the fabulous Cheryl Salyers. The pieces including a newly created western style "day of the dead" bridal skirt from my very own wedding dress Also, a fun pon-cho made from a 1960's linen table cloth!

I'll be teasing a future appearance at the COZ Art show in November with a Marie Antoinette themed pink cello; 4 new Jesus pieces, and a colorful "traveling circus" with some treasures given to me by Susan Stubbins! I hope you all can make it to my very fun show and I hope these new pieces bring a smile to your face!

From the desk of the director: John Taylor-Lehman

Thanks to Crystal Fuller, Tori Alexander, Irene Baron, Frank Fazakas, Erin France, Janice Helmbrecht, Joan Quinn, Carron Baxter, Robert Riggins, Mary Ann Bucci and Christy Swope the ZAAP booth at the Y-Bridge festival was hosted by members from open to close each day.

The rain barrel raffle earned the group more than $100! Thank you Jenn Sands and Tiffany Scanlon for painting the barrel.

Janet Taylor-Lehman has several pieces of her fabric art on display in the Welcome Center display case. Visitors can view her work until the end of August.

News from our members

Please join Joan Quinn, Kiyoe Howald and Carron Baxter who are having an art show at the Muskingum University Palmer Gallery. The opening reception is on September 2, 2:00 - 3:30pm. The show named "Local Colors" will be up until October 1. We hope all of you will join us in viewing our opening and seeing the new Palmer Gallery as well as visiting with Professor John Sun who has so kindly invited us to exhibit in the new space.

ZAAP artists will be featured at the Weasel Boy Brew Pub (126 Muskingum Ave, Zanesville, OH 43701) during the months of September and October. Details about the drop off times will be provided at the next membership meeting on August 28th. I hope many of you will participate. It is a great new opportunity for people to see and perhaps buy your work.

Here's an idea. Do you want to clear your house of unwanted art and art supplies and help ZAAP at the same time? We could host a sale of such items at a single day long event. The items must not be your own work and of good quality. Janet suggest we call the event "Artifacts ". We'll discuss

We're at it again! Time for some fun and a unique show to participate in and attend!

Friday, October 3, 5-8 p.m. Find on Facebook www.facebook.com/theartistcollective.net
