THE BLITZ

SEPT 10 - SEPT 12, 2015

INCONCLUSIVE

By Jim Gumm Owner / Editor of THE BLITZ

We are 1 week into the 2015 college football regular season and already we've seen some teams that have surprised us both positively and negatively but really, can we make definitive statements about the teams after just 1 week?. Of course not. Just last year everyone fell in love with Texas A&M after they blasted South Carolina 52-28 in week 1 and most people buried Ohio State after they lost to Virginia Tech 35-21 in week 2. Texas A&M finished 8-5 and unranked while Ohio State finished 14-1 and won the National Championship.

The Northwestern victory at home vs Stanford makes us wonder if Pat Fitzgerald's team is that improved or if Stanford has declined. Northwestern is now 9-1 in opening games under Pat Fitzgerald with 5 of those wins against "Power 5" teams.

Auburn had one of those games where we still don't know what to make of the Tigers. They came away with the victory over Louisville in Atlanta 31-24 and the defense looked better but QB Jeremy Johnson was inconsistent (11-21, 137 yards, 1 TD, 3 INT).

Quite possibly, the most complete team win this past weekend, was Notre Dame's total domination over Texas. Notre Dame QB Malik Zaire was an amazing 19-22 for 313 yards with 3 TD's and 0 picks. While the Irish offense was putting up 527 yards and 38 points, their defense kept Texas to just 163 total yards and 1 field goal. Zaire looked extremely good and the Irish looked like a true playoff contender.

On Labor Day night, Ohio State closed out week 1 with a dominating win over Virginia Tech. With all the talk about who would start at quarterback for the Buckeyes, it was the former starting QB who was the star against the Hokies. Braxton Miller showed off his skills by catching a 54 yard TD and rushing 53 yards for another TD.

On a sour note there were several significant injuries that could negatively impact the season. Pittsburgh RB James Conner (MCL), Notre Dame RB Tarean Folston (ACL), BYU QB Taysom Hill (Broken Foot), Syracuse QB Terrel Hunt (Achilles), UCLA DE Eddie Vanderdoes (ACL), Penn State LB Nyeem Wartman-White are all out for the season while Clemson WR Mike Williams (Fractured Neck) and Arizona LB Scooby Wright (Meniscus Tear) are out for at least half the season.

Ohio State, Alabama, USC and Oklahoma remain the top 4 teams in THE BLITZ but Georgia, Michigan State, Notre Dame Auburn, UCLA, Texas A&M and TCU are lurking.

AROUND THE NATION

Unfortunately, there are very few intriguing games this coming weekend. Oklahoma (1-0) travels to Knoxville to take on Tennessee (1-0). The Sooners beat the Vols 34-10 in Norman last year but Tennessee is a much better club this year so we expect this to be a great game. OU QB Baker Mayfield and UT QB Josh Dobbs are key for both teams but both have great running games as well. Oklahoma has the explosive Samaje Perine while the Vols have a dynamic RB Duo in Alvin Kamara and Jalen Hurd.

In a game that probably won't show up on the national radar but will in the middle of the country, Iowa (1-0) travels to the newly renovated Jack Trice Stadium to take on their in-state rival, the Iowa State Cyclones (1-0). The winner gets the Cy-Hawk Trophy.

Notre Dame (1-0) travels to Charlottesville to take on a Virginia (0-1) squad that stayed with UCLA for a while so the Irish need to be prepared.

Temple (1-0) tries to keep their momentum going as they take on Gunner Kiel and the Cincinnati Bearcats (1-0).

Boise State (1-0) and BYU (1-0) meet at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The winner of this game could really elevate in the national polls.

GAME-OF-THE-WEEK

OREGON
MICHIGAN STATE

In a game that will be played in primetime at 8:00 PM EDT and televised nationally on ABC, the Oregon Ducks (1-0) will take on the Michigan State Spartans (1-0).

Last year Michigan State was in the game vs Oregon in Eugene but the Ducks, with Marcus Mariota, dominated the 4th quarter in their 46-27 win over the Spartans. This year Mariota is throwing passes in the NFL for the Tennessee Titans but the Ducks have Eastern Washington transfer Vernon Adams who threw 2 TD passes in his debut last week. Oregon rushed for 485 yards last week as well so it appears that the Ducks can still tote the rock with the best teams in American.

Michigan State is only as good as Connor Cook plays. Last week the Spartans had 3 backs that rushed for more than 50 yards but it still comes down to the play at the quarterback position. Cook has to improve his completion percentage to be effective vs the Ducks, however.

Oregon leads the all-time series 3-2. Oregon is 3-0 in Eugene beating the Spartans in 1980, 1998 and 2014 but Michigan State is 2-0 vs Oregon at Spartan Stadium winning in 1979 and 1999. We were not impressed with Oregon's defense or Michigan State's special teams play in week 1 but when all is said and done we like Connor Cook to and Michigan State to come away with a close win at home.
