

Anna Henderson

D: Desire to assist not only the persons served but those that she works with. A co-worker informed her supervisor that she credits Anna on the knowledge she has about the persons served because of Anna's knowledge and desire to assist the persons served in gaining independence

S: Sincere about her supports to the persons served, her job, and her co-workers. A true team player!!!

P: Patient with the persons served. Takes the extra step/time with the persons served to complete the ultimate goal of assisting the persons served gain independence!

Over the past couple of years Anna has grown in many ways but the one that stands out the most is her being such an amazing team player. Anna is one of the first to pick up open shifts, offer suggestions to make things run smoothly and truly embraces the core values of MYEP!! Keep Up The Awesome Work!!!