

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Sound of Blackness

Inducted in 1998

Multiple Grammy Award Winning Artist, Sounds of Blackness continues to be among the most influential messengers of hope and peace. Sounds of Blackness have created both national and international audiences while performing through the world. National events have included performing at the White House for President Clinton and guests.

National Television appearances include The Grammys, The Tonight Show, The Today Show, Vibe and Good Morning America. Sound has also performed nationally at the World Cup, Olympic Games and the World Figure Skating Championships.

The group have received or been nominated for several Grammy Awards, Soul Train Awards, Stellar Awards, Image Awards, and the International Time for Peace Awards