"Bakeless" Bake Sale

A bit of news we have today.
A bakeless bake sale is on the way.
In these busy days now who would bake
Pies or cookies or even a cake?
You'd be surprised if you counted the cost
Of material, heat and the time you'd lost.
Baking for a sale is extra work
Yet nobody really wishes to shirk.
So we thought of a plan that's really grand
And feel quite sure you'll understand.
In an envelope, please put the price
Of a pie or cake or something nice.
Without any bother you've done your part.
We're sure you'll give with a willing heart.
This is the end of our little tale
Wishing success to our "Bakeless Bake Sale".

Looking for Loopholes

by Travis L. Quartermous Stoneridge church of Christ Jonesboro, Arkansas

One of the most popular entertainers of the Vaudeville era was W.C. Fields (1880-1946).

While Fields could make audiences roar with laughter, he was certainly not a Christian and made no pretense of his disdain for the Bible. Thus, it came as a great shock when one of Fields' friends, visiting him in the hospital near the end of his life, found him reading the Bible one day. When asked what he was doing, Fields, ever the comedian, replied, "Just looking for loopholes."

Friends, one day we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

In 2 Corinthians 5:10, we read, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad."

On that great day, we will be judged by the word of God. Jesus Christ said, "He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him — the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day" (John 12:48).

God's law, unlike man's, has no loopholes. No lawyer will be able to fool the Judge of all men or be able to negotiate a plea bargain. Hebrews 9:27 reminds us, "...it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment..."

If the Judgment Day were today, where would you spend eternity, in heaven or hell?
