The Falmouth Genealogical Society, Inc. (FGS) has much to offer to both the experienced and the beginner genealogist.

Meetings

Are held on the second Saturday of each month at the Main Falmouth Public Library, 300 Main Street, Falmouth in the Hermann Meeting Room unless otherwise indicated. The meetings begin at 10 AM with a brief business meeting followed by a program and guest speaker. No fee is required to attend and non-members are welcome. The November meeting is held jointly with the Cape Cod Genealogical Society on Cape Cod.

Help Sessions

Every Tuesday from 2 to 4 PM at the Main Falmouth Public Library, members of Falmouth Genealogical Society assist anyone with their genealogical research. This is a free drop-in session with no appointment needed. An extensive collection of genealogical materials covering the globe is also available in the Lemke Reference Room.

Falmouth Genealogical Society, Inc.

Falmouth, Mass.

Barnstable County

Established 1985

The Falmouth Genealogical Society, Inc. (FGS) was founded over 35 years ago in 1985 by a small group of local genealogists to provide other genealogists in the area an opportunity to participate in educational programs and share research interests, results and challenges.

You don't have to live in Falmouth or even have ancestors from Falmouth or Cape Cod to join. Our members conduct research in many different locations in the US and around the world.
