Presentation for Online Giving & Sign-ups will be the weekend of November 3 & 4 at Masses. Presentation will be given by Amanda Scheidegger. To sign up, you just need a few minutes and your bank routing and account numbers. Brochures are on tables by the church doors to give an overview.

October 28, 2018
If you would like to bring a card to show your appreciation for Fr. Brian, there will be a basket available in the vestibule.

Join us for Trunk or Treat on Halloween Night! St. Pius X will host a trunk or treat for the community on Halloween from 5:00-7:00 pm in the church parking lot. Decorate your trunks for the little ghosts and ghouls and have candy to hand out to them. This will be advertised in the community, so let's have as many trunks filled with treats as we can! Need ideas for decorating your trunks? Watch our Facebook page for ideas!

Our heartfelt thanks to our St. Pius X family for all the condolences, cards and prayers during the tragic loss of my sister and Amanda's aunt, Phyllis Minton. Your thoughtfulness made our burden more bearable.

FROM THE PASTOR

October 21, 2018
 Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Mark 10:35-45

Dear St. Pius X and St. Anthony Church Family,

"Call your seat, I call shotgun!" When I was a kid, whoever said that, got the best seat. They got the jump on everyone else and sat up in the front car seat beside the driver! The front seat was the favorite one because it had the best view, but way back then, it also meant you controlled the window crank and could roll the window down as wide open as you wanted! Well, James and John are doing that today by calling for the 'glory seats' beside Jesus in His Kingdom. James and John want the pole position, like in Nascar racing, up front alongside Jesus. Another way of thinking about how 'special' their seats are is to imagine them on powerful thrones beside Jesus, much like we see every January in the US State of the Union address. The president stands at the podium and over his right shoulder sits the Vice President, and over his left shoulder sits the Speaker of the House. Or consider that James & John are looking for popular attention, like in parades when people get lucky to ride alongside the Parade Grand Marshal in his/her special car drawing all the focus from the crowds. That acclaim and prestige is what James and John are after, but before we give them too hard a time for being 'fame-greedy', listen to verse 41 "When the other ten apostles heard this, they became indignant at James and John." The other ten apostles are mad because James and John beat them to the punch, cutting in line ahead of them to seize the desired power seats. They are ALL power-hungry! After this, Jesus may want to call these fought-over seats, "high chairs", because of how 'childish' the apostles are acting. So, verse 42 says "Jesus summoned them all, and said to them..." This is Jesus taking a 'teaching moment' to expose their corrupt 'power grabbing' and misunderstanding of his mission. For Jesus, authority is service to all, and power is shared with everyone. Christians, who lead with a title or position, should not rub the noses of those working below them in their rank-authority. Jesus says, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord their authority over them,.... But it shall not be so among you." (Mark 10:42-43). Jesus leads by service. Jesus starts his confrontation of James and John's misunderstanding of Christian power, by telling them "You do not know what you are asking" (Mark 10:38) He is saying, "Do you know how far in over your head, you are getting." In fact, James and John may receive seats beside Jesus but they are not the 'comfort seats'. Picture the two crosses on either side of Jesus on Calvary. Crosses are what Jesus has in mind for those who are strong enough to serve alongside Him. Jesus tells all of us, 'If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me' (Mark 8:34). So, to claim a place beside Jesus doesn't mean a pampering seat for oneself, but a 'standing service' for other people.

To see the apostles wanting to 'boss' their authority over others and feel glee over controlling other people, this should humble all of us. If those closest to Jesus in the Bible fall into sins by abusing power, then all followers of Jesus need to beware of 'tendencies' to manipulate others. Do we still find such sinful ambition in Jesus' disciples? Can a Christian disciple abuse power? For sure! Maybe it is not surprising to quote here the famous principle of inevitable corruption that Lord Acton wrote in 1887, that "Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." But a historical note that may surprise us is that he wrote this in a letter rebuking an Archbishop named Mandell Creighton. We all stand under judgment! (2 Corinthians 5:10) Not all that long ago, at a press conference of a just-appointed young Bishop, he was asked about his ceremonial coat-of-arms and motto. He said he was so surprised at the call, he hadn't had time enough to select one. Then he was asked why not and if it was true that some men pick their motto in seminary, and he said 'Yes, but I am still settling into this surprise'. There it is: Temptation to power! Climbers even in the seminary! Jesus Himself faced that temptation in the desert (Matthew 4:8-9). But Jesus is clear, that there is to be none of that in His Kingdom (Mk 10:43).

Peace and Prayers,
 Fr. Brian

Do you see a future priest? Do you know a faithful young man (high school or older) who may have a vocation to the priesthood? We believe that our future priests will come from our own parishes and schools, but we need your help to identify them. During National Vocation Awareness Week (November 4th – 10th), we are asking you to recommend young men whom you believe might have a vocation to priesthood. Any man you recommend will receive information from the Vocations Office and will be invited to participate in our discernment opportunities such as retreats and our vocation camp. Recommendations may be made by calling the vocations office, (270)683-1545 or online at our vocations website: <http://www.owensborovocations.com/called-by-name/>

Sunday, October 28th is Priesthood Sunday. It is a time to celebrate and affirm the men who commit their lives to the Lord and the Church in the Sacrament of Holy Orders. It is an opportunity for Catholic parishioners to thank, affirm, and share their love and support for our priests. On this day, parishioners are encouraged to make a commitment to pray for all priests and especially for their own parish priests. It is also a time to pray for vocations to priesthood and to encourage young men to courageously seek God's will and follow his call.

What are Mass Intentions/Memorials?

At each Mass, during the Prayer of the Faithful, we hear that prayers are requested at this Mass for a particular person(s). This is referred to as a "Mass Intention." This means that special prayer is being offered for the eternal rest of the soul of someone deceased, or for the special prayer intentions of someone who is still living.

If you would like a Mass offered, please call Paula in the parish office to schedule that Mass, or drop an envelope in the collection with your information (name and specific date if possible). The standard request gift is $5 for a mass intention.

You are invited to the Knights of Columbus' Awards Dinner on Monday, November 5 at 6:00 p.m. at Ponderosa in Draffenville. Please let us know you are attending by writing your name and the number of people in your party on the sign-up sheet. All attending are responsible for their own costs.

The Lunch Bunch will meet on Tuesday, November 13 at 11:30 a.m. at the St. Pius X Parish Hall. Please bring your favorite Thanksgiving dish to share.

Also, please bring a baby photo of yourself for a fun guessing game.

Quilters' News: The Prairie Cross quilt was raffled on October 14 after Mass at St. Anthony. The winner was Erin Smyth of Indianapolis, IN who was visiting the area over Labor Day and bought her ticket at St. Anthony. The Prairie Cross quilt earned $523.00 for the building fund.
