

Brenchley Pre-School Limited

Whistleblowing Procedure

As stated within the policy entitled 'Allegations of child abuse made against a member of staff' any allegations will be treated in strict confidence.

If child abuse by a member of staff is suspected, then the Designated Person in the Pre-School should be informed, whether or not you think it is true (unless they are the alleged perpetrator). The Second Designated Person can be informed regarding allegations against a member of staff.

In the event of the allegation is against the Designated Person, or if you feel your suspicions are not being taken seriously, then the most senior person in the Pre-school/Management Committee should be informed and they in turn should the Local Authority Designation Officer (LADO) for a consultation.
