Emergency Medical Associates Now Provides Emergency Department Management Services at The Good Samaritan Hospital

PARSIPPANY, NJ--(Marketwired - Feb 27, 2014) - Emergency Medical Associates (EMA) recently contracted with The Good Samaritan Hospital, Lebanon, Pa., to provide emergency department management services.

For 125 years, the Good Samaritan Health System has served the needs of Lebanon County, Pa. The hospital offers an array of acute care and outpatient services including an award-winning cardiac and vascular center and a center for wound care and hyperbaric medicine. The hospital has been recognized by The Joint Commission as a "Top Performer on Key Quality Measures" and is a 2013 recipient of an Excellence in Patient Care award given by Studer Group®.

"The Good Samaritan Health System is known for delivering high-quality care, having been recognized nationally for its clinical expertise," said Raymond Iannaccone, MD, FACEP, president and chief executive officer of EMA. "Emergency Medical Associates is excited to partner with Good Samaritan and expand our presence in Pennsylvania. While we have provided urgent care services in Pennsylvania for several years, this is our first emergency department management contract in the state."

Emergency Medical Associates began staffing the emergency department Jan. 1, 2014. Marc Bonin, DO, FACOEP, serves as the Emergency Department Medical Director. The emergency department sees 54,000 patients annually.

"Dr. Bonin has been on staff at Good Samaritan for one year, bringing new ideas and practices to the emergency department. Now he will have the support of one of the fastest-growing emergency medicine practices in the country helping further improve the delivery of care to our community," said Jacquelyn Gould, MS, RN, Vice President, Patient Care Services/Chief Nursing Officer.
