2 Timothy 3:1-17

Coping in Difficult Days

"Difficult Times Will Come"

3 But realize this, that in the last days difficult times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

3 unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good,

4 treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

5 holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; Avoid such men as these.

But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be...

...lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God.

2 Timothy 3:1-4

Learn Something Holy from The Elderly

Learn from one another!

You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, persecutions, sufferings – what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured. Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them.

Relationship formed by the Word

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a large quantity of golden wheat grains. The hand is positioned in the lower right, with the palm facing up. The grains are piled high in the center and are beginning to fall away from the hand, creating a sense of movement. The background is a soft, out-of-focus field of similar wheat, bathed in warm, golden light. The overall mood is one of abundance and care.

Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.
