Recent Events

Wayne Drewry, York County District 3 Supervisor, outlined his activities and addressed the issues he's worked since taking office.

Bobby Alsbrook from Tommy Garner Air Conditioning and Heating had a theme of change. Change in his job, change in life, change in the heating business, etc. "There is lots of change, often its good (but not always), we just have to go with the changes."

Michael Steen, Director of Education, Watermen's Museum, talked about the Museum's plans starting this year for Yorktown's 250th anniversary. There are a lot of activities going on over the next few years starting in June this year. A fascinating talk!
