"Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye. "A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

Excerpt from 'Judge Not' (by Unknown)

I was shocked, confused, bewildered As I entered Heaven's door, Not by the beauty of it all, Nor the lights or its décor. But it was the folks in heaven Who made me sputter and gasp --There stood the kid from seventh grade Who swiped my lunch money twice. Next to him was my old neighbor Who never said anything nice..... I nudged Jesus, 'what's the deal? 'I would love to hear Your take. 'how'd all these sinners get up here? 'God must've made a mistake.'

'And why is everyone so quiet, 'so somber -- give me a clue.' 'hush, child,' Jesus said, 'They're all in shock! 'No one thought they'd see you.'

FEBRUARY 27, 2022 + EIGHTH SUNDAY ORDINARY YEAR C

"Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" (Luke 6:41) Jesus uses a descriptive and familiar turn of phrase, warning us against hypocrisy & to be careful about casting quick judgements upon others. If something obscures ('in your eye'!) our vision, we are in no position to claim to see others' sins. Jesus uses a great cautionary proverb from a whole family of similar proverbs, like "Those in glass houses, should not throw rocks", "The pot shouldn't call the kettle black" and "If you run with the hounds, you better not hold the hare." Earlier in Luke 6:37 Jesus had taught, 'Stop judging and you will not be judged" before more specifically He said, that "the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out back to you" (Lk 6:38). The standard that we use to rule against another will also be applied to us. So how do we measure up? We may condemn ourselves just the same as the person we are condemning. Sadly, we see this all the time in groups as one side or one party screams 'injustice' about the other group's 'crimes', when plenty of their own group are engaged in the same misconduct. Or even ourselves, how often might we put down someone over something they did, yet later realize that from another person's position, they see us doing the same thing? We all stand under judgement from God. Jesus starts out this section of teaching by pointing out how the blind are the worst guides? Of course, how can someone who cannot see guide others along a path? We all have blind spots, and so Jesus wants His followers to examine ourselves first, before we venture out determining the right/wrong in others. Knowing how sensitive the eyeball and its surrounding tissue is, even a simple speck/dust in our eye will distort our vision when we look at a neighbor.

This is why Jesus says in Matthew 2:22-23, "The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light; but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be in darkness." We must protect our vision: the ordinary sight with our eyeballs, yet also our inner spiritual eye that sees causes & effects, determining the real from the unreal (also called discernment!). So, anything in our own eye that disrupts our vision, throws off any judgement of ours. We all have blind spots that interfere with correct vision! And I like how Jesus says that it is not a 'speck' we will have in our own eye, but assume it is more likely a 'BEAM' in our own eye! We might wish it be only a speck, but Jesus knows human nature. Jesus knows us! Our accusatory judgements are distorted by our own sins. So, we need 'eyewashing' ('I-washing' of Baptism/Reconciliation) before we can see clearly to identify/point out the sins of others. Lest we doubt this pervasive blindness in us, consider that every time we recite the Our Father, we are asking God to 'forgive us as we forgive others'. So, being honest with ourselves, sin is a daily event in our lives. Sin humbles us. We stumble or misstep every day somehow by not living up to God's call for us. Maybe several times a day. When we offer the confession prayer at the beginning of mass (that is our sinners' prayer!), we say 'for what I have done and what I have failed to do"! Sins of Commission (what I've done to others) and Sins of Omission (what I have selfishly not done for others). Those sins of omission can slip up on us, because we may not realize them, such as missed opportunities of charity towards another. Proverbs 24:16 even tells us that "Though the just man fall seven times, he rises again...." So even the 'just ones' fall into sin maybe up to seven times a day. But they turn to God, the source of mercy, and rise to walk in faith again. Humility is required when we examine our behavior in daily prayer and personal recollection. We certainly do not want to offer the self-righteous prayer of the Pharisee in the Temple who confessed the sins of his neighbor the tax collector in the Temple only trying to make himself look better (Luke 18:11). Instead, Jesus celebrated the humble & honest tax collector's prayer. He simply confessed his own unworthiness saying, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13). Short, simple and to the point. So we must be humble about assessing sins by starting with our own selves. If we claim to have no sin, watch out! On one occasion (of many) Jesus challenged the hypocritical selfrighteousness of the Pharisees by telling them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you are saying, 'We see,' so your sin remains" (John 9:41). It is when we exalt ourselves as 'standard bearers' that we may be setting up for a fall. Humble self-honesty is our best guard against such hypocrisy! Peace, Fr Brian
