

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Philip Brunelle

Inducted in 2001

Philip Brunelle – Philip Brunelle, Founder and Artistic Director of Plymouth Music Series of Minnesota is an internationally-renowned conductor, choral scholar, and performer. His conducting engagements span the globe. Believing listeners and musicians alike must continue to explore and experience music of many genres and styles, Brunelle has worked tirelessly to educate audiences about the joys of this exploration by recording works, and by guest appearances on radio and workshops and seminars.
