 - f. Social Committee: Organize socials and dance lessons. Record attendance and collect appropriate fees. Provide a financial report at each regular monthly meeting. Report at least once a year on the total income and expenses of running the socials and dance lessons.

VI. Executive Board

1. The Executive Board shall consist of the Elected. Officers.
2. The Executive Board shall meet at the discretion of the President or by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

VII. Dues and Fees

1. The amount of annual dues, initiation fees, fees for attending meetings and socials, shall be proposed by the Executive Board and decided by vote of the membership. Fees for club sponsored dance lessons will be commensurate with the fee charged by the dance instructor and the number of members who have signed up to take the lessons.

Dues for the current year shall be payable by January 31st. Only members in good standing shall be entitled to renew their membership. If payment is not made by January 31st, the members(s) will be notified, as determined by the Executive Board, that the members(s) have been placed on the delinquent list for non-payment of dues. Dues are currently $125.00 per couple. Dues not paid by January 31 are subject to a late fee of $25.00.(no exceptions). If dues are not paid by February 28* or 29th, a letter shall notify the member(s) that they have been dropped from the membership roll and are no longer entitled to the privileges afforded members.

2. Members not in good standing who are denied membership renewal may request a review by the Executive Board. Such request is to be made in writing no later than the March meeting and acted upon no later than the April meeting. The decision reached by the Executive Board will be final.
3. Married couples and single couples shall pay annual dues in the amount approved by membership. Single members shall pay annual due in the amount of one half the rate approved for couples.

Executive Board members are exempt from paying annual dues. Their non board-member partner shall pay annual dues in the amount of one half the rate approved for couples.

4. The fees to be paid at meetings and socials shall be determined from time to time by vote of the membership.

VIII. Voting and Amendments

1. A majority vote of the members in good standing present at any meeting shall be sufficient to initiate any action of the SIBD membership other than to amend its Constitution, By-Laws or Working Rules.
2. The Constitution, By-Laws or Working Rules may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members in good standing present at any regular meeting. A proposed amendment to the Constitution, By-Laws or Working Rules must be submitted in writing and discussed at a prior meeting.
