Purpose

When a family member is accused of a sex crime, the effects on the rest of the family are devastating. While the Compassion Initiative never condones criminal activity of any kind, it recognizes families often feel alone, confused and terrified when a family member has been accused of a sex crime.

Thus, the Compassion Initiative exists to provide support, counsel and other resources to a family thrown into crisis by a criminal allegation of a sexual nature.

FEARLESS

Meet with and learn from others who have been in your situation. FEARLESS meets at 7 p.m. on the third Monday of the month at St. Michael Lutheran Church, 13232 Blondo Street, Omaha.

"Compassion is the greatest form of love humans have to offer."

The Forgotten: Spouses, Siblings, Children

When someone is accused of committing a sexual offense, the consequences for the accused are usually part of the public record. Often forgotten in the public discourse, however, is the family of the accused and the many ways an accusation impacts each member - spouses, parents, children, siblings. Many families have never been through a crisis of this sort before and feel completely devastated, overwhelmed and alone. The Compassion Initiative reaches out to this forgotten group with support and resources.
