November 2015,

Dear Area Business Owner:

The Liberty High School Performing Arts Department will be hosting our 1st soon-to-be-annual Holiday Dinner and Silent Auction Showcase. This year, the event will be held on December 11th, 2015 at 6:00pm in our cafeteria. The award winning programs from Liberty High School including the Band, Orchestra, Choir, and Thespians will be showing off their talents and bringing in holiday spirit. The success of arts programs depend upon the outstanding work ethic of the students, the diligent staff members, and an overall commitment to excellence in arts education. The proceeds from this event will help defer many of the costs associated with running successful arts program.

We are asking for your help. Auction items donated for this event will benefit all the fine arts students involved. If you would like to make a donation to the Liberty Performing Arts programs, please fill out the attached donation pledge.

All businesses donating $200 or more worth of merchandise will receive a ½ page ad in all the concert and Thespian programs for the current year. Businesses donating between $50 and $199 will receive a business card ad. Simply email the ad you would like to use to admin@soundoflibertybands.com. All donations are tax deductible, and necessary documentation is included in this letter as well.

Feel free to contact us by phone, or by email. Follow up calls will be made to confirm your donation during the week of December 1st. We appreciate anything you can donate and all proceeds from the auction will go to supporting the arts programs at Liberty High School.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Sincerely,

The Liberty High School Performing Arts Department

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income. Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
