At the age of 10, Minna Rae wrote a play for a Girl Scout merit badge which was recognized by the National Council and presented in an auditorium in Hartford, Conn. She was a columnist for her high school newspaper, afterward, the Chicago Teachers College newspaper. For the last 25 years, Minna Rae contributes social advice in a column for The Chicago Jewish News. Her previous publications include her memoirs in 'Collage, The Picture Story of my Life,' and her husband, Stanley's memoirs, 'My Story.' Stanley was a WWII Veteran and passed away four months before his 95th birthday which would have been their 62nd wedding anniversary.
