

Lorraine Kelterborn, 85, of Port Austin, died Sunday, May 8, 2016, at the Cartwright Hospice Residence in Saginaw.

She was born in Port Austin on April 16, 1931, second daughter of late Edwin Knoblock and Gertrude (Sosnowski) Knoblock.

She and Dave Kelterborn married on Jan. 3, 1953, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin. He preceded her in death on May 2, 2007.

Lorraine graduated from Port Austin High School and Providence Hospital School of Nursing in Detroit. Lorraine was a registered nurse and worked at Providence Hospital in Detroit, Sister's Hospital and Millard Filmore Suburban Hospital in Buffalo, New York.

She retired from nursing but volunteered for the last 10 years at Scheurer Hospital in Pigeon. She enjoyed tennis, gardening, volunteering at schools, traveling, reading, singing and dancing. She loved walking around Port Austin and could often be spotted on the breakwall. She loved spending time with her children and grandchildren.

She touched a lot of lives in her 85 years. Lorraine will always have a warm place in our hearts, and we will forever hear her voice reminding us to dance every chance we have and to pick more daisies.
