

Robert Paapa Cudjoe

Toronto, March 3, 2016, On Guard for Humanity announced today the appointment of Robert Paapa Cudjoe as a new member of the Board of Directors & Trustees of On Guard for Humanity, an important milestone and commitment to the pursuit of humanitarian causes in Africa and beyond.

Alberto de Sousa Costa, President and CEO of On Guard for Humanity stated “Robert Paapa Cudjoe has been working closely with us for nearly 3 years, developing our efforts in Africa and he is an advocate of the fundamental principles that guide us as a charitable organization and the importance to bring these values of service and commitment to communities in Africa and elsewhere affected by recurring natural and other disasters, or displaced as a result of wars, internal armed conflicts, ethnic persecution and poverty.”

De Sousa Costa added “We are delighted to have Robert Paapa Cudjoe as a Member of our Board of Directors & Trustees. Robert is already delivering safe clean drinking water to refugee camps in West Africa, the Ghana Refugee Board and the National Disaster Management Organization in that Country working in close cooperation with the John A. Kufuor Foundation (www.kufuorfoundation.org).

On Guard for Humanity is a registered not-for-profit public charity operated by a group of dedicated Volunteers who give their time, life-long knowledge, experience and resources (Human Capital), and relies on funding from grants, philanthropy and both public and private sector donors, who share a common bond, to bring relief to people surviving under dire circumstances by helping affected communities rebuild their lives; breakdown the barriers of inequality; and empower people to strive through planned infrastructure and capacity building projects and education. delivered at a local community level.

On Guard for Humanity provides high quality drinking water, food, shelter and emergency deployment medical supplies and equipment to refugee camps under the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), and to other United Nations' Aid Agencies and internationally recognized Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), in response to their needs for assistance and cooperation wherever it is needed.
