†SAINTS/FEASTS OF THE WEEK†

May 20-St. Bernardine of Siena-A Franciscan missionary and Italian priest, St. Bernardine. He became very popular for his preaching against sorcery, gambling, infanticide, witchcraft and usury. He is the patron saint of advertising, gambling, Italy and public relations.

May 21-St. Christopher Magallanes and Companions-A martyr and saint, St. Christopher was killed without trial in 1927 during the Cristero uprising in Mexico. St. Christopher was on his way to Mass when he was seized on false charges of inciting a rebellion. He was martyred, along with 21 other priests and 3 laypersons between 1915 and 1937 during the Cristero revolution

May 22-St. Rita of Cascia-Married at the young age of 12, St. Rita was a wife and mother of twin boys. Her husband, however was killed due to his political office. Soon after, her twin sons died from natural causes. Now widowed and childless, she returned her attention to the desire of her youth to join the Augustinian nuns of St. Mary Magdalene Monastery. When in her 60s, she was meditating before an image of Christ crucified, a wound appeared on her forehead as if a thorn from Christ's crown of thorns had penetrated her flesh, the pain from which she endured for some 15 years.

May 25-St. Bede the Venerable-An English priest, Benedictine monk and scholar, St. Bede was also a theologian, historian and chronologist. His best known work is the "Ecclesiastical History of the English People."

-St. Gregory VII-One of the greatest reforming popes, St. Gregory VII is perhaps best known for his with Holy Roman Emperor Henry VI in the Investiture Controversy regarding papal authority and elections of popes. While regarded as one of the greatest Roman pontiffs, St. Gregory VII was also despised by others for his expansive use of papal powers.

-St. Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi-An Italian Carmelite nun and mystic, St. Mary Magdalene is known as the ecstatic saint due to her unusual gifts from God.

"Eternal rest grant unto them Oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they Rest in Peace."

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the broken-hearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your spirit, to the glory of God the Father,

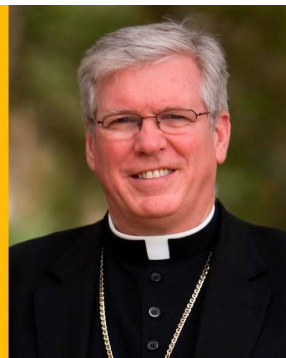

Amen.

A prayer to St. Rita when in special need

Prayer:

O powerful St. Rita, rightly called Saint of the Impossible, I come to you with confidence in my great need. You know well my trials, for you yourself were many times burdened in this life. Come to my help, speak for me, pray with me, intercede on my behalf before the Father. I know that God has a most generous heart and that he is a most loving Father. Join your prayers to mine and obtain for me the grace I desire (here mention your request). You who were so very pleasing to God on earth and are so much so now in heaven, I promise to use this favor, when granted, to better my life, to proclaim God's mercy, and to make you more widely known and loved. Amen.

“You will be consoled according to the greatness of your sorrow and affliction; the greater the suffering, the greater will be the reward.” -St. Mary Magdalene de ‘Pazzi

Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros

19 de mayo de 2019 • Quinto Domingo de Pascua

La naturaleza humana enfrenta la novedad o lo nuevo de diferentes maneras. Mientras algunas personas atrevidas evitan la rutina y activamente buscan experiencias inusuales, una gran mayoría de nosotros, teme a lo desconocido, se resistente al cambio. Jesús conoce perfectamente nuestra naturaleza humana, y comprende la resistencia común de desordenar la rutina. Sin embargo, él proclama: “Yo hago nuevas todas las cosas”. Durante la Última Cena, él va más allá pronunciando un nuevo mandamiento “ámense los unos a los otros”. Para los judíos atentos, que son los compañeros de Jesús, recibiendo un mandamiento nuevo podría sentirse tan impactados como escuchar acerca de una segunda luna orbitando la Tierra, o un quinto océano llamado Rafael.

NADIE TAN PEQUEÑO

Misteriosamente, la novedad revolucionaria de Jesús surge de su obediencia profunda para arreglar la tradición, la Ley de Dios. En el quinto capítulo de Mateo, Jesús promete que él no ha venido a abolir las enseñanzas de la ley y los profetas y, la más pequeña letra de la ley estará vigente hasta que todo se cumpla. Con su perfecta obediencia al plan de Dios, Jesús cumple la letra de la ley. Al mismo tiempo, él demuestra el espíritu de la ley al ofrecer libremente su vida por nosotros, con gran preocupación amorosa por nuestro eterno bienestar. Como san Pablo les dice a los romanos: “el amor es el cumplimiento de la ley”. Dios nos dio reglas para protegernos y ayudarnos a ordenar nuestras vidas correctamente, pero Jesús nos muestra que el amor hace que la ley sea algo innecesario. Una madre que ama a sus hijos no tiene la necesidad de estarse acordando del mandamiento “No matarás”; porque su amoroso instinto nutre a sus hijos, ella no solo sigue el Quinto Mandamiento, sino que lo trasciende, cumpliéndolo al querer realizar algo más de lo que se pide. Ella no solo evita matar, ella protege y mantiene la vida. La revolución de amor de Jesús nos desafía a encontrar cada momento, a cada persona, como una nueva oportunidad a sacrificarnos en amor, haciendo más de lo que la ley requiere.

MAY 19, 2019 FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race."

— Revelation 21:3

"He aquí, la morada de Dios es con la raza humana".

— Apocalipsis 21:3

MISSIONARIES OF MERCY

Paul's back! After last week's "violent abuse," opponents organized a lynch mob that beat Paul nearly to death. But call Paul the "energizing evangelist," transforming deadly cruelty into life-giving zeal. Paul's past courage should inspire our commitment; Revelation's future "new heaven, new earth" should inspire our optimism. But Revelation's present assurance, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race," should challenge us to become "missionaries of mercy." Because Pope Francis declared that the Church's credibility is completely dependent on our showing unconditional mercy. Mercy, said Francis, makes the Church, the world, and everyone young again, reawakened to life's noblest virtues. Fittingly, in today's Gospel Jesus reinforces that theme: "This is how all will know you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Frequent fliers today have many ways to accrue air miles, so one doesn't always have to endure long hours in cramped seats to earn free hours in cramped seats. In St. Paul's day, there were no such perks, nor would there have been any legal system for him to protest the shipwrecks he endured. He had other rewards in mind. The churches that he established in the catalogue of cities from today's first reading must have been very different from one another. Language, culture, customs, religious history, obstacles to community, social challenges, the places where they met, their clothing, their bread and wine, all distinct, particular to the area.

There were social customs as well: in a Christian household, the only place where a slave would be able to stand legally as an equal with the master would be at the table of the Lord, because at that table a new world of reconciliation was imaged. While Paul revered local customs, he was relentless about challenging the ways that people lived their Christian lives and how their worship reflected them. It is much the same today, as a global Catholic Church seeks to respect local customs and culture, allowing for differences in many things, yet always giving expression to the underlying presence of Christ, who binds us all together into his body.
