THEATRE & FILM IN EDUCATION {selected}

READY SET GO THEATRE CO.	Ready Set Go (readyssetgotheatre.com) is a 501(c)3 I created to equip educators in 21 st century high school classrooms. We create online episodic productions of Shakespeare's texts using contemporary settings. Each youth oriented series comes with unit lesson plans meeting all federal standards with adaptability to each teacher's needs.
ARCHETYPES	I worked with middle school students in New York's East Village to capture stories they created to articulate the larger forces they see at work in their lives.
CO-LAB	The first two times I led this class it was graduate actors, writers and directors trading places to work outside their normal roles within a familiar process. The other two sessions combined design students from PARSONS SCHOOL OF DESIGN and theater students from The NEW SCHOOL FOR DRAMA. The focus was creating a synthesized form using both disciplines and encouraging collaboration between the artists.
PERFORMING SHAKESPEARE	As a guest instructor for The NEW SCHOOL FOR DRAMA I have taught several in class workshops on how to approach Shakespeare both a dramaturgical and performance oriented standpoint. The emphasis is on the student objectively understanding their text and their instrument in order to bring them together as performance.
NAKED ANGELS	I worked several times as a teaching artist for a 24hr Play Festival coordinated by Naked Angles with BFA students from the New School.
OTHELLO PROJ.	I worked with CATSKILL HIGH SCHOOL's Senior Honor's English using my own OTHELLO web series as a foundation. I then helped the students create their own film interpretations showcasing their comprehension of the play's plot and themes.
