Clay is a master horseman who teaches students at all levels and riding disciplines. He is a scholar of classical dressage and a proven instructor in-hand and under saddle. He teaches details that create balance and refinement with the horse.

Clay is highly recommended by riders across the Northwest, and Maria Meister and Connie Willard of Project Spirit Horse Rescue.

Testimonials:

"Clay is a wonderful addition to our community. He is a kind person and an amazing horseman and teacher. Five-star rating from this happy customer! I highly recommend Clay for horse and/or rider education."

— Tracy Shinkle (Bend, OR)

"Clay is awesome! He has really made some good ranch horses for us with a correct foundation in dressage. I have known him 15+ years and have participated in many clinics."

— Jeanette Beard (Tetonia, ID)

"Clay is a gifted horse trainer and instructor. He is extremely well read in classical dressage, a scholar of refinement and an all-around phenomenal horseman."

— Leta Young (Tulelake, CA)
