

Anderson, Josephine B.

Josephine (Beadle) Anderson, 87, of Caseville, died in her home on Monday, March 6, 2006, after a long illness while under hospice care. Josephine was born on February 13, 1919 in Caseville to the late George and Frances (Nicklas) Beadle. She grew up in Caseville and graduated from Bay Port High School. She married Charles J. Anderson of Detroit on November 23, 1939 at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville. She moved to Detroit and lived there until returning to Caseville in 1971. After retiring, she and her husband spent many winters in Florida and Texas. She was a member of St. Roch Catholic Church and the Caseville American Legion, Jean Post 543. She enjoyed spending time with her family, gardening, and knitting. Josephine is survived by her children, Joan Makowski, of Florida, George (Ann), of Plymouth, Kathleen (Jerry) Rechul, of Lexington, Leona (Ron) Randall, of Redford, Michael (Patty), of Florida, and Charles Jr. (Pam), of Texas; 17 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; siblings, Marion Parent, of Caseville, Harold (Betty) Beadle, of Georgia, Leona (Fred) Langley, of Caseville, Albertus Beadle, of Caseville; Francis (Thelma) Beadle, of Caseville, Jesse Otto, of Pigeon, and Herbert (Jean) Beadle, of Westland. She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles, in 2000 (after 60 years of marriage); son-in-law, Aloysius; brothers, William, George, and Thomas Beadle; and sister, Geraldine Parent. A funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Wednesday at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville with Fr. Ken Yaroch presiding. Visitation will be from 3 to 8 p.m. today at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville and from 9 a.m. until the time of the Mass on Wednesday at the church. There will be a scripture service at 7 p.m. today at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to Heartland Hospice or St. Roch Food Pantry.
