November 19, 2017
Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 25:14-30

“Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return?”

Jesus told several parables about people given responsibility for different quantities of talents and the consequences for the recipients who used their talents well in contrast to the recipients who failed to use their talents at all. Jesus seems to act harshly toward the person in the stories who receives the least amount and does nothing with it. The lesson of these stories is not that the people who receive the least amount of talents did not have much to work with. Jesus is teaching us that no matter how much or how little for which God makes us responsible, God expects us to make our best effort to make the most of it. It is not about the amount of the talents. It is about the amount of the effort. A steward is a person who is given the responsibility for the preservation and productivity of the possessions of another. Everything we are and have comes from God. He expects us to be good stewards and make the most of it

Holy Hour Eucharistic Adoration

Sunday, December 3rd, from 2:00pm – 3:00pm at St. Pius X Parish. Bishop Medley has invited all to join him in a Holy Hour in the parishes. He is encouraging everyone to come together in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament with the intention of promoting Evangelization in our diocese.

The Lunch Bunch

The Lunch Bunch will meet every 2nd Tuesday. The next meeting is Tuesday, December 12th, at 11:30am. It's a Christmas celebration. Please bring finger foods and other treats to share.

There will be no FFY classes on Wednesday, November 22nd for Thanksgiving break!

If you have a working car, van, or truck to donate to the Church, please contact the Parish office.
