

THE LORD'S MOUNTAIN MOVERS PRAYER LIST

Welcome to the Lord's Mountain Movers Prayer List. We invite you to look through this list and pray for one or more of these requests. We believe and stand on God's word concerning intercessory prayer, it says, "...pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much." (James 5:16) We also believe that when our circumstances become overwhelming we can pray for peace. "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:6-7)

May God bless you and answer your prayers as you reach out in prayer. Please let us know when and how the Lord answers your prayer so we can post it right away. Remember, a Christian who advances on his knees never retreats!

To God be the honor, the glory, and the praise for answering these petitions in His wisdom and timing, Amen!

December 2018 – January 2019 Prayer List

Michelle HPray for Richard, unspoken word.

To my dearest brothers and sisters in Christ. I have a very special prayer request for all of you. Mary Sauer who has been leading the ACTS Foundation has a prayer request for herself that I want to share with you. Mary has been given a heart towards those who are in prison. She and the ACTS Foundation have sent thousands of beautiful bibles to inmates in California. I received one of these bibles over 13 years ago and that gift has blessed so many others since then. Please join me in lifting her up before the healing and loving hands of our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank and God bless you all.

Mary's Prayer request - Dear Brothers in Jesus: A very short note to let you know that into every life a little rain must fall and sometimes "a bump in the road". The "bump in the road" is actually a bump on the back of my head as on Friday evening 10/19, I was standing at my kitchen counter and suddenly heard a loud noise in my head and a funny feeling in my chest (not my heart though) and I fainted. When I woke up, I realized that I was on the floor having a little difficulty breathing and cried out "please God help me". As I sat up, I also realized that I was in trouble as the blood was running down the side of my face and when I looked back on the floor there was a puddle of blood. I managed to get up and call 911 and the medics were there within 10 minutes. I spent a couple of hours in E.R. and then they kept me at the hospital Friday night, Saturday and released me on Sunday afternoon. Praise the Lord as I had no confusion at all and answered all their many questions correctly, and the only lingering effects are headaches and pressure in my head that comes and goes. I am having an MRI tomorrow evening (11/2) and after that I must wear a monitor for two weeks. My cardiologist doesn't think it was my heart thus the MRI plus seeing a neurologist. The greatest blow to my pride is that I am using a walker at home just in case it happens again - remember the saying that "pride goes before a fall" so I must swallow my pride and use the walker: also, I am not supposed to drive until they know why I fainted. I am reminded of the song "I don't know about the future, but I know who holds the future". Remember the saying that Bill and I used all the time "For this I have Jesus".

The main reason for this letter is to ask for your prayers that God will heal my head quickly because it is my understanding that trauma to the head can take a long time to heal and if I don't write as often as I want to, you will understand why. Maybe this is a wakeup call from God that I need to prioritize my time with more in-depth Bible reading and prayer. I don't always have to write a lengthy letter but just a card to let each one of you how much I love you and call it a privilege to have you in my life as brothers. Your letters keep me on my toes and remind me how much God loves each of us. What a privilege to share the Love of God with each other in envelopes. God's love in an envelope!

Please feel free to contact us on our website, www.TheLordsMountainMovers.org. You can sign up to get the monthly newsletter free of charge.
