

14th Annual Barbershop Talk Human Family Day

Posted: Friday, April 25, 2014 12:00 am

0 comments

Beloved Philadelphia barber Robert “Woody” Woodard, recently received a proclamation in the Mayor’s Reception Room at City Hall. The proclamation noted Woody’s contribution to society and to celebrate the upcoming “Barbershop Talk Human Family Day 2014,” scheduled for Sunday, April 27.

Founded in 1995 by Woodard, Barbershop Talk Human Family Day Foundation, Inc. became an outgrowth of Barbershop Talk Network.

Cultures that represent communities from around the world have an opportunity to showcase the richness of their traditions and contribute personal experiences. Programming includes educational and interactive activities in the following areas from health to the arts.

“We are a community-based organization that uses the barbershop as a forum to dialogue with visitors from around the world,” Woodard said. “For five years, we hosted Barbershop Talk on WURD 900 AM. As a result, our listening audience broadened, expanding our involvement and purpose nationally.”

This year’s 14th Annual Celebration will be held at Union Baptist Church in South Philadelphia 1910 Fitzwater St. in South Philadelphia, Sunday, April 27, from 3 to 8 p.m.

Mayor Michael Nutter presents the proclamation for Human Family Day 2014 to Robert “Woody” Woodard, founder of Barbershop Talk Human Family Day Foundation on April 4. — SUBMITTED PHOTO /J.ANTONIO PHOTOGRAPHY