January 31, 2016
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 4:21-30

And Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place."

If we become a star athlete or acquire great wealth, our high school or home town may honor us as "Person of the Year" or dedicate a plaque to us. But if we challenge people to do great things, there may be no plaque for us. Jesus entered the synagogue in his home town of Nazareth and read a passage from Isaiah that prophesied he coming of the Messiah and then He said it had been fulfilled in their midst. The people of Nazareth knew Jesus well. He grew up and lived among them. He was one of them. He was like them. He had not yet done anything to indicate that He was the Messiah. But the people knew the Messiah would do great things. If Jesus was the Messiah, there was no reason why they, too, could not do great things. If Jesus could not prove to them that He was the Messiah, there would be no pressure on them to be better than they wanted to be. Jesus knew that familiarity breeds doubt. He challenged the people of Nazareth to accept Him despite their doubt - to have faith in Him. Do we sometimes doubt Jesus? Do we accept Him as Messiah despite our doubt? Do we have faith in Him?

Our Solidarity, Our Joy

The Ash Wednesday Collection on 2-10-16 will again be for our Sister Diocese of Mandeville Jamaica.

The greatest joy is helping others without seeking what's in it for us. This is especially true when we discover a link of love with people in true need.

As we share from our sacrifices for the needs of our Sister Diocese in Mandeville Jamaica, we share a bond of love as resources meet needs. Jesus affirms in us that we are brothers and sisters in Him and our joy together is complete.

Please consider a generous response again this year to the Ash Wednesday Collection.

The Diocese of Owensboro Needs Your Help!

The Diocese of Owensboro Communications Office has created a short survey in order to assess the communication needs of those in our faith community in western Kentucky. Please find the survey at <http://ow.ly/XgXv6>. The survey will close February 12th. Thank you for your participation!
