

Call for Abstracts for the 12th Annual Phoenix Area Child Life Conference

Maricopa Integrative Health System
Glendale, Arizona ~ March 23, 2018

The Phoenix Area Networking Group is seeking abstract content focusing on enhancing professional practices in work with children, youth, and families in hospital, community, and other related agencies.

Submission Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Authors who are accepted must register for the conference and the fee will be waived 2. Authors are responsible for all travel, hotel, and all related costs 3. AV equipment will be made available at no cost to the authors 4. Authors will provide their own laptop
Information to be Submitted	Title: Should be specific to content
	Skill Level: Refers to the level of course material being presented ACLP Content: Identify the domain best related to your presentation
	Author Information: Identify the authors who will be presenting and include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Name and qualifications (include degree, title, institution) 2. Addresses, phone numbers, and e-mails 3. Designate one contact person if more than one person is presenting Educational Design including: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Description of presentation including 3 learning objectives and expected outcomes 2. Teaching Method (lecture, discussion, hands-on, etc.) 3. Length of Presentation (1 hour - 1 ½ hour including discussion)
	Summary: Briefly write a 2 to 3 sentence summary of presentation
	Curriculum Vita: Attach curriculum vitae or resume for each presenter Biography: Attach an approximate 50-word biography of each presenter
Submission Deadline and Contact	Deadline: December 1, 2017: lamb.krystal@mayo.edu Krystal Lamb: 480-342-4073