(In accordance with GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) Regulation (EU) 2016/679 - 14/04/16)

1.0 Overview

Deorwine Dog Training provides group and one to one training for dogs and their owners at our training centre and at clients homes. In order to provide you with the best service we request you to voluntarily give us your contact information along with some personal details.

2.0 What information do we collect?

We collect information from you when you register on our online and paper forms and verbally.

When registering, we may ask you for your name, e-mail address, mailing address, phone number, information about your dog and yourselves to enable us to attend to your needs in a professional manner.

We do not collect any financial information.

Payments are made by cash, cheque, Bacs or PayPal.

3.0 How do we protect your information?

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information. Contact information is kept on the owner of Deorwine Dog Training's Smart Phone to contact you promptly for training updates and to keep in touch for support. The mobile is password protected and covered by antivirus software.

Paper forms are archived and kept securely at Deorwine Dog Training's head office and will be destroyed on request or after 5 years.

Deorwine Dog Training promises to keep all information provided by you confidential. We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information.

Some information is collected on our behalf by Third Parties, for example when you are contacted by email or when completing on line forms. Deorwine Dog Training only uses the following approved organisations who have demonstrated compliance with GDPR.
