

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion take communion to the Sick/Homebound those who cannot attend Mass because of illness, injury, or age issues. These ministers keep parishioners connected to and bring them the comfort and strength of the Eucharist during difficult times in their lives. We minister to people in their homes, in nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and retirement communities within our parish.

Anyone who has received training as a Eucharistic Minister can receive additional training for this ministry

Parishioners who would like to have a Minister bring them communion when they cannot attend Mass either for a short period of time or long term, may contact the parish office at 561-582-4736.

A background check, copy of driver's license, copy of automobile insurance and completion of online "Vulnerable Adult Training" is required in order to become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

If you are interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion to the Sick, please contact Pat Gallon at 561-762-8380.
