

Flannery, Theresa

Theresa Flannery, a resident of Bad Axe since 1946, passed away on Monday, August 16, 2004, at her home under hospice care. She was born in Port Austin on October 18, 1925, the daughter of the late Edwin and Lucy (Goretski) Mayes. She graduated from Port Austin High School in 1943 and she attended Sienna Heights and Michigan State College. Theresa Mayes and Marcus Flannery were married October 12, 1946, by her uncle, Father Carl Mayes. Mrs. Flannery was a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church where she taught CCD classes, worked in the food pantry and served on the funeral luncheon committee. She was a Girl Scout leader, a long time member of Lost Lake Woods Club and the Thumb Arts Guild and served on the Bad Axe Library Board. Surviving are her husband of 57 years, Marcus; two daughters, Susan Moorman and her husband, Patrick, of Clinton Township and Jane Hayes and her husband, William, of Milford; three grandsons, Matthew Moorman, Brent Hayes and his wife, Dawn, and Ryan Hayes; one sister, Venice Finan; two brothers, Edwin and his wife, Jane, and Raymond and his wife, Lynne, all of Port Austin; two sisters-in-law, Betty Mayes, of Port Austin and Sally Mayes, of Mount Pleasant. Two brothers, Harold, of Port Austin, and Carl, of Beal City, preceded her in death. A mass of resurrection will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, August 18, 2004, at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe by Father James Carlson. Interment will take place at Sacred Heart Cemetery. Memorials are suggested to the Sacred Heart Food Pantry or the Bad Axe Public Library.
