

Government by God's Design

Training for Christians in politics

If you want to know more about honoring God in politics, this training is for you. These sessions were created for elected officials, candidates and Christian leaders interested in God's design for government.

Each session focuses on Biblical passages, videos and other reference material specifically identified to speak to Christians in politics.

Some of the major topics covered include:

- Biblical guidance and historical perspective
- Biblical worldview and religious liberties
- Christian engagement and collaboration

Time requirements: The materials include approximately 10 hours of instruction, interaction and activities. The information can be delivered in a variety of ways to be determined by the sponsoring entity.

Costs: The information is available at no charge. Printed materials can be handled internally or purchased at cost.

Suggested presenters Include: Pastors, Judges, Elected Officials, Christian association representatives, Christian NGO executives
