The Security Services Leader

Event Security

When you are responsible for a major event that a lot of people will attend, it's important that you keep them as safe as possible. Our event security services are a great way to get the peace of mind you're after.

As an established security service, we offer a wide range of services for clients who believe in putting safety first.

The Protection You Need

Our security personnel are trained professionals who are committed to offering thorough, vigilant service. Whether you need our services on a one-time or ongoing basis, you can count on us for:

- Affordable service
- Hassle-free scheduling
- Nightly Patrol, ensuring doors are locked
- Securing your location and deterring vandalism

Don't settle for an average security service.

Call the professionals at Tri-State Security and Patrol Services today for more information about our event services or to discuss your specific needs.

Some of the biggest events over the years have trusted Tri-State Security to ensure the safety of their attendees, and you can trust us with your event as well.
