DECEMBER 2017

NO MEETING IN DECEMBER. Instead we are having our annual CHRISTMAS PARTY at the same location, the American Legion Hall, 8th & C St., Springfield, Saturday Dec. 16, from 3 to 5:30 pm. There is a full kitchen in the back of the building and room for a large or small gathering. The Evens family is bringing a turkey and the rest is potluck, your chance to show off Aunt Sally's favorite dish. We will be collecting items for Toys for Tots, please do not wrap them. Thanks to Sylvia Myer for her help in getting the use of the building for our club.

SHOOT: Saturday December 30, 10 am, McGowan Creek Rifle Range off Marcola Road. I thought "really? A shoot at the end of December?" Yes, it's on the Emerald Empire Gun Club Calendar of Events along with a list of other doin's so of course we are, rugged mountain men and all that, right? $5 fee per shooter. Warm up at the clubhouse for lunch, there will be chili and whatever else gets brought.

NOVEMBER SHOOT REPORT: Thanks to Lorraine Hayden for the write-up and scorekeeper duties while yours truly was in North Carolina with family.

Our Turkey Shoot was held at the EEGC Range on Nov. 25. We had 7 shooters and 4 volunteers. The weather was cool and somewhat misty. The favorite target was the Bug Splat devised by Walt Evens. He drew 5 large ants on an open file folder and had catsup packets for the bodies. 5 shots, 1/ant. A centered hit was easily seen, but edge shots didn't bleed much until the targets were gathered for scoring. The ants must have been good at dodging, since 5 shooters only got 2 each for a 5 way tie.

By noon, everyone was cold enough to adjourn to the warm clubhouse/kitchen. The chili was hot and the pies very good. While we ate lunch, Roger Schaeffer from Salem, a National Muzzleloading Rifle Association Field Representative, talked to us about becoming a Charter Club with the NMLRA.

Can you believe that many matches? I would have been climbing the walls of the score shack – whew! Usually Prez Tim Hayden runs the shoots but this time Dave Carlstrom came out and volunteered to be rangemaster so Tim got to shoot.

FRONTIER HERITAGE FAIR: Last month I wrote about it and neglected to include the dates. It is the third weekend in February, 17 & 18. Table reservations are coming in with a few new people and we may have to get creative to fit everybody...

CLUB DUES are due in January. Single $25, family $35. Make your check payable to FUML and you may send it to the above address or pay at a club function. Thank you for supporting your club.

I don't have another story from Steve Gilmore this month but this is the time of year he gets noticed. Steve isn't as round as Santa but he has the white beard and says he gets a lot of looks (some hopeful or awestruck) from little kids.
