

INTROIT - entrance Psalm of worship

P Praise | the Lord! *
Praise the Lord, | O my soul!

G I will praise the Lord as long | as I live; ***
I will sing praises to my God while I have my | being.

P Put not your trust in | rulers, *
in whom there is no sal- | vation.

G Blessed is he whose help is the God of | Jacob, ***
whose hope is in the | Lord his God,

P who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is | in them, *
who keeps faith for- | ever;

G who executes justice for | the oppressed, ***
who gives food to the | hungry.

P The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes | of the blind. *
The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down; the Lord loves the | righteous.

G The Lord watches over the sojourners; he upholds the widow and
the | fatherless, *
but the way of the wicked he brings to | ruin.

P The Lord will reign for- | ever,
your God, O Zion, to all generations. | Praise the Lord!

G I will praise the Lord as long | as I live; ***
I will sing praises to my God while I have my | being.

COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day

P O Lord, let Your merciful ears be open to Your humble servants; and grant that what they ask may be in accord with Your gracious will; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G Continued with sung "Amen", p. 189

OLD TESTAMENT Isaiah 35:4-7 God's strength and love to heal and provide Say to those who have an anxious heart, "Be strong; fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy. For waters break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

Psalm 146

GRADUAL the ancient seasonal, Scriptural response to hearing God's Word

P Fear the Lord, | you his saints,*
for those who fear him lack | nothing!

G Many are the afflictions of the | righteous. ***
but the Lord delivers you out | of them all.

EPISTLE James 2:1-10, 14-18 Show love to all

My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. For if a man wearing a gold ring and fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, and if you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, "You sit here in a good place," while you say to the poor man, "You stand over there," or, "Sit down at my feet," have you not then made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor man. Are not the rich the ones who oppress you, and the ones who drag you into court? Are they not the ones who blaspheme the honorable name by which you were called? If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

HOLY GOSPEL Mark 7:31-37 Jesus heals the deaf, mute

Jesus returned from the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him. And taking him aside from the crowd privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting touched his tongue. And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. And Jesus charged them to tell no one. But the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.
And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well.
He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Risen Savior Lutheran Church

The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod - Basehor, Kansas

15th Sunday after Pentecost

Sept. 5, 2021

Welcome to the Lord's House. Our Merciful Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Does All Things Well. The Lord proclaims the Gospel "to those who have an anxious heart" to comfort and encourage them with His presence. He comes not only with threats of "vengeance" and "recompense," but with His gracious salvation (Is. 35:4). He opens "the eyes of the blind" and "the ears of the deaf," and He loosens "the tongue of the mute" to "sing for joy" (Is. 35:5-6). Like water on thirsty ground, He speaks His life-giving Word to people of all nations. With His Word and the touch of His hand, He does "all things well," so that you may now speak "plainly" (Mark 7:31-37). You confess the truth of God in Christ to the glory of His holy name, and you call upon His name in every trouble, confident that He will hear and answer. As you pray and confess with your tongue, so also "love your neighbor as yourself" (James 2:8). Show your faith "in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory," by loving without partiality. For God has "chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom" (James 2:1-5). May the Lord bless this Divine Service.

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for our guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
