Bill and Donna Meares

Music has always been a part of Donna's life. As a child, she started singing in the church. Donna says "We had a family quartet that was often invited to sing at other churches. These experiences exposed me not only to various music styles, but also to different types of worship." Through these experiences, God equipped Donna with the courage and ability to minister to others through music.

Donna was saved and baptized as a child. Being heavily involved with the family quartet, music was all that she knew. She would pretend that she was singing on stage, directing, and ministering to others. Before she began first grade, she knew that God had given her a talent and all she wanted to do was sing. Through God's music, she wants others to know the love of God and to experience His salvation.

By the time Donna was a teenager, her family group had disbanded, but she continued to sing in church. Her continued commitment to use her talent to sing developed into a solo ministry. Donna has served as Director of Junior Choir, Youth Choir, and Worship Arts Director.

Donna has an increasing desire to see the love of God projected through her music. Donna says she wants others to know about God in the songs she sings. "I want them to experience His love, mercy, and salvation. God let me be a tool through which this is achieved."

Bill grew up in the church. He comes from a rich Christian heritage. He has held various positions in the church at an early age. He has always loved music and loved technology. He has a great ear for music so running sound comes natural to him.

They both work full-time positions. Donna is the web and policy director for the South Carolina Department of Administration. Bill is the operations manager at the University of South Carolina.

Donna and Bill have two grown children, Bill and Jessica. Bill had a daughter, Brianna. Jessica and her husband Michael are expecting their first child.
