Bread of Life Series

August 1, 2021

John 6:24-35

What Bread are we hungering for? People use food for many things in addition to satiating true hunger: distraction, pleasure, medicine, and so on. As human beings, we crave food for a variety of reasons, whether good ones or not. This tells us something about our spiritual life! Sometimes we reach for a donut when we should be acknowledging that there is a deeper and more important issue that we are not addressing. Jesus is telling us, just as he told those in today's Gospel, that the food that will save us for eternal life is what we are really seeking. Do we listen to Jesus when he tells us that he is the answer to our hunger? Jesus said, "Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty" (John 6:35b). Come to Jesus and believe in him. Come to Jesus in the Eucharist because he is the Bread of Life that you are hungering for. Please continue to pray as we are in week two of a five week series on the Bread of Life discourse as a Diocese. Jesus, lead us all to a deeper understanding and experience of your saving love in the Eucharist.

"[This celebration] is intended to highlight family love as a vocation and as a way of holiness, so as to understand and share the profound and salvific meaning of family relationships in daily life."

Challenge of the week:

Pull out some board games and have a game night with your family!

Reflect on how Jesus must have played with Mary and Joseph as he grew up. Ask your children how they think Jesus might have behaved when he was their age.

Do you feel called to become Catholic?

Do you know someone who wants to know more about the Catholic faith?

Contact Sara Lewis at the parish office and inquire about our RCIA program. Laugh of the Week

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Live the Liturgy

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life. God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death. After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.
