

The New Folksters

THE NEW FOLKSTERS are a group of folk singers from Eugene, Oregon, who combine wonderful harmony with hot instrumentals. Their performances are fun and include 60's folk songs, contemporary folk tunes, rollicking jugband and ragtime ditties. They have been recently been compared to the Kingston Trio and The Rooftop Singers. They have been featured performers at NW Folklife in WA, Tumbleweed Folk Festival in WA, Glendale Folk Festival in AZ, Fiddlers Dream in AZ, Emerald Valley Opry in OR, and many others. Some members have been part of the folk singing community since the 60's. Members are:

HAL WEINER, (guitar, banjo, uke, vocalist) has been involved in the folk music scene since the late '50's. He has performed on stage with the Barbary Coast Singers, The New Christy Minstrels, and is the founding member of The New Folksters. He produced the Florence Folk Festival for 13 years and is a past president of the Oregon Old Time Fiddlers Association.

BEVERLY SCHRIVER, (kazoo player, vocalist) started singing when she was 10. She is enjoying life as a newlywed, a retired medical librarian and a singer and kazoo player with the group. She is also the better half of the duo known as Hal and Bev.

KEITH BARR, (guitar, vocalist) is a well-travelled folk artist and marvelous songwriter (Boston, Los Angeles, Seattle), who entertains audiences in a rogue, Irish tenor that has been compared to Glen Yarborough and Neil Young. He has been playing folk songs since the 60's.

"They sound like a cross between The Rooftop Singers, The Kingston Trio and The Limelinters" - Tom Wilson -Emcee NW Folklife
