

Mrs. Mose E. Herford Buried Monday

May 17, 1945

Funeral services for Mrs. Mose Herford, who died Thursday of last week, were held in the St. Paul Evangelical Church, Elkton, Monday afternoon. Rev. Cornelius Van Dalen, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, of Bad Axe, officiated. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Ida Marie Herford died May 17 in her home north and west of Elkton after an illness of nine months due to a heart ailment. She was born August 23, 1879 in Bingham township, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlegel. On October 2, 1907 she was united in marriage with Mose E. Herford. Active in church affairs she was the first organist of the Elkton Missionary church.

Surviving are her husband, three sons, Clarence Herford, of Britton, Mich.; Elton Herford, of Elkton; T/Sgt. Vernon Herford, in the United States Marine Corps, stationed at South Carolina; four daughters, Mrs. Violet Furlong, Mrs. Alvina Jones, Mrs. Annie Sparling, and Miss Arlene Herford, all of Detroit, and eleven grandchildren.