

A Mother's Day

Aaron Beard Trussville church of Christ Trussville, AL

Mothers of faith instill faith in their children and are praised by God for their godly service (2 Tim. 1:5). As we honor our mothers today, please notice some of the things with which a mother's day ought to be filled.

A mother's day is...

...a day of joy. The day of giving birth to new life is a great day of joy and gladness (Jno. 16:21). Yet, even while motherhood brings joy it is also attended with sorrow. Mary, the mother of Jesus, had great sorrow as she witnessed her son Jesus being horribly mistreated (Lk. 2:34-35).

...a day of love. Godly mothers seek the welfare of her children before herself. She "watches over the ways of her household" with love (Prov. 31:27). Blessed is the family whose mother wraps her children in the security of warm affection and constant care (Titus 2:4).

...a day of instruction. Mothers are daily teachers of the next generation. Her words, values and character are instilled in the hearts and lives of her children. Mothers, be careful to teach your children "with wisdom" and the "law of kindness" (Prov. 31:26).

...a day of devotion. Hannah devoted herself to giving her son Samuel to the Lord (1 Sam. 1:11, 22, 27-28). Your children will not be Christians by accident. Mothers, you have a tremendous part in the faith of your children. If you are not devoted to God it is unlikely your children will be. Set them a godly example every day. They will "rise up and call (you) blessed" (Prov. 31:28).

We welcome all who are here today.

If you are a visitor we are honored to have you with us. Please fill out a Visitor Card (on the back of the pew in front of you) so we may have a record of your visit. Later in the service we will pass around a collection plate. As a visitor you are obviously not expected to give but we would like for you to place the Visitor Card in the collection plate. Thanks.

There is a nursery at the rear of the auditorium up the stairs for infant care.

Please keep cell phones and other noise making devices silent during worship.

Happy Mothers Day to all of our wonderful moms.

Updates:

Butts Sumner has been dealing with shingles.

Diane Mellott, Barbara Oliver, and Mark Dailey are dealing with an eye problem.

Marge Reed had carpal tunnel surgery recently on her right hand.

Cheryl Mellott was admitted to Millard Fillmore Suburban last Sunday with increased heart rate. The Dr's are trying a new drug to stabilize the heart. She remains hospitalized.

Keith Marten underwent a heart cath procedure Tuesday afternoon which showed his heart looked good. They planned to meet with the cardiologist the next day to decide what to do with a leaky heart valve. COPD remains a concern. Glory is asking for prayers.

Marissa and Jace Stine. Let's keep them in our prayers.

Renee Kinney. Let's keep her in our prayers.

Samantha Mellott, Diane Mellott's granddaughter, let's keep her in our prayers also.

A big THANK YOU to everyone who came out Thursday morning to prepare the latest issue of House to House/Heart to Heart. Your servant hearts are appreciated. The new issue was mailed this week to 1,028 homes in the LaSalle community. This makes our tenth mailing of the brochure to homes around the church building. Make sure you pick up a copy to read and to share with friends and family. Please continue to pray for those in the LaSalle community that they will read the brochure and pay us a visit.

Personal care items for the vets at the V.A. Hospital in Buffalo and also non-perishable food items for Casey House on Cedar Ave. in N.F. are being collected. If you can help in this matter it is greatly appreciated. Zambia Baby Fund - Several members are contributing financially to this.

Everywhere Jesus went, men marveled at His greatness.

When He was just an infant, Mary and Joseph marveled at what was spoken of Him (Luke 2:33).

At twelve, they were amazed at Him as He discussed questions with doctors in the temple (Luke 2:48).

His hometown synagogue wondered at His gracious words (Luke 4:22).

The Jews marveled that He knew letters, having never learned (John 7:15).

The disciples were amazed at His transfiguration (Mark 9:1-15). They were amazed (Matthew 12:23) and marveled at His power to do miracles (John 7:21).

The "multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel" (Matthew 15:31).

His disciples marveled that His word could wither a living fig tree (Matthew 21:20), that He talked with a Samaritan woman (John 4:27), and that He controlled nature: "What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!" (Matthew 8:27).

His followers were amazed at His teachings (Mark 1:27), and wondered at His resurrected body (Luke 24:39-41).

His enemies marveled (Matthew 22:22).

Governor Pilate marveled at His restraint (Matthew 27:14).

His executioners marveled at His greatness (Luke 23:47). Follow Him; He will amaze you, too! (John 10:4).
