

The February meeting of Clinton County Board of Realtors was called to order by President Robyn Clifton. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited. A moment of silence was held in memory of board member Tracy Meares who recently passed away. New members and guest were introduced: Karen Kerns and Amy Preston of Slyman Insurance, Bree Honnerlaw of Honnerlaw Real Estate and Jon Yonas & Jim Schroder of American Homeland Title.

The minutes of the last meeting were read with a motion to approve made by Cheri Honnerlaw, second-Connie Gray. Motion to approve-passed. The treasurer's report was made with a motion to approve made by Ray Sarkees, second-Brad Knapp-motion to approve-passed. The fund raising drawing was won by Rodney Carrauthers.

Under new business: Robin Norman announced that the New Life Clinic will be having a fund raising walk April 19th. If you would like to walk or donate, please contact her. Sheri McIntosh spoke about the need for development in our community and suggested that a committee was formed to discuss the problem with community leads. Steve Riehle made a motion to form a committee and Jeff Honnerlaw seconded the motion. Motion to form a committee passed. The board is in need of a volunteer to sit on the Community Action Committee. Anyone interested please let Robyn or Tammy know. Gary Rome updated the board on the Rombach Ave street project.

Under old business—a reminder of the Pancake breakfast.

The speakers of the day were the candidates running for the position of county recorder: Kelly Hopkins and Jonathan McKay spoke. Candidate Tanya Snarr was unable to attend but sent her information. Also Ruth Brindle spoke about Main St Wilmington and their upcoming event to tour vacant/for rent located in the downtown business area.

A motion to adjourn was made by Ray Sarkees.