First Women Park Rangers Program

Sunday, February 23 at 1:00pm
Visitor Center

Who were the first women rangers in eastern Massachusetts state parks? Patricia Jennings: hosteller, advocate and Red Cross volunteer who travelled to Europe during World War 2. Francis Gilotti: an award-winning teacher who taught her Girl Scout troops survival skills and resilience. Hear about their groundbreaking years and hear what path brings them to become leaders at the state parks. Join Kery Ellis for her PowerPoint presentation to learn about these two remarkable park rangers. Q & A will follow. If weather conditions permit, a short walk will follow the program.

Tickets at $10 per person and Members of the Friends of Borderland are $8. Children 10 and younger are free. Seating is limited, first-come, first-seated. Tickets for this unique presentation will be sold the day of the event. Doors open at 12:45pm. Please park in the main parking lot, near the visitor center. 259 Massapoag Avenue, North Easton, MA.

This event is co-sponsored by the Department of Conservation and Recreation and the Friends of Borderland, a non-profit organization. In 2020, Borderland is celebrating the centennial of women's suffrage through a lecture series, highlighting remarkable women in American history, along with other programs and events throughout 2020. For more information, please visit www.friendsofborderland.org. Lecture series is rain or shine, all children must be accompanied by an adult. For reasonable accommodations, please call Borderland at (508) 238-6566.
