

'It gives such driving thrills'

1994 Mazda MX-5 Alan McNaughton Gisby, Veneto, Italy

'I'm an ex-pat living in Italy and I run my own classic car consultancy business (asmgitalia.com). I have 'an ear to the ground' in Italy and speak Italian, which goes a long way to make my services hassle free to the customer. I also have a 1967 MGB GT and a De Tomaso Pantera.

All my cars give me a different driving thrill on the roads around Cortina in the Dolomites. But it is my MX-5 that gives the simplest driving pleasure, especially roof down. It's been in the family since 2003, I've been through the whole car and it's as good as it can be now.'
