

Clark Development Corporation Executive Visits Vancouver PCG

9 October 2019 – Mr. Rodem R. Perez, Assistant Vice President for Business Development Department II and Head for Investment Promotions Division II of Clark Development Corporation (CDC), took the opportunity of his visit to Canada to call on Acting Head of Post Arlene T. Magno at the Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver. AVP Perez shared a presentation on the Clark Freeport and Special Economic Zone, which he said was also presented before the Ambassadors and Consuls General at the Global Conference of Heads of Posts being held in Manila this week. DCG Magno invited AVP Perez to do a similar briefing for the Vancouver Board of Trade and Vancouver Economic Commission, as well as the Philippines-Canada Trade Council, the next time he visits Vancouver, in the hope of promoting business and investment opportunities in Clark to the business community in B.C.
