GENERAL INFORMATION

Ages for youth weeks are 12 - 18 or 7th -12th grades. Junior ages are 8 - 12 or 3rd - 6th grades. Combination weeks are designed for smaller churches or for families to bring teens and junior age children at the same time. Churches coming for these weeks must enroll juniors AND teens. Separate dorms, games and services are conducted for each age group. Registration is Monday from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. Orientation begins at 4:00 p.m. Camp week ends Friday morning after the awards ceremony.

The standards we have are Biblically based and will be upheld by all campers and visitors. Knowing these policies before you come to our campgrounds will help you decide whether we are the place for you to attend camp or to send your young people. Following these rules while at the campgrounds will help you to have a more enjoyable visit. Please read them carefully.

Cabins are not equipped to store candy or food. Please do not bring snacks. No alcoholic beverages, street drugs, or tobacco in any form. No weapons of any kind allowed on the camp. Do not bring electronic devices (games, mp3, or CD player, etc.) No questionable music, books or magazines. Cell phones must be turned in at night to a counselor. No shirts with questionable pictures or emblems. Mixed swimming IS NOT permitted. All prescription medication must be turned in at the camp office upon arrival. No physical contact allowed between male and female campers. Any camper failing to comply with camp rules will be sent home at the individual's or church's expense.

LADIES' CODE OF CONDUCT

Ladies are required to wear modest skirts, dresses and "skirt-appearing" culottes. All need to be to the bottom of the knee. No slits above the knee. No skirts worn low on the hips. Modest one-piece bathing suits allowed FOR SWIMMING ONLY. No sleeveless or bare midriff tops, or sun dresses. (Modest tops and blouses only). No pants, gauchos or shorts. No body pierced jewelry on girls, except for earrings. Causal dress clothes are recommended for evening services.

GENTLEMEN'S CODE OF CONDUCT

The following types of clothing ARE NOT TO BE WORN: see-through or mesh-like material shirts, sleeveless shirts, sweat pants, oversized pants worn low on the hips. Jeans or casual pants ARE allowed. Swim trunks or cutoffs (no denim) FOR SWIMMING ONLY. Causal dress clothes are recommended for the evening services. Men will not be allowed to wear earrings, necklaces, bracelets, body pierced jewelry, etc. Hair must be off the ears and collar; no dyed or carved hair styles.

Mt. Salem Revival Grounds was started in 1975 by the late Dr. Joe M. Boyd. Its purpose was to provide a training ground for preacher boys, as well as a place for churches to bring their young people for camp in the summer. It is located in the wooded foothills of the Appalachian Mountains. The atmosphere has always been that of an old-fashioned revival where the preaching is hot, the invitations are sincere, and the results are lasting.
