The RR Valley Fairgrounds has electrical camping spots available in the Livestock/Horse trailer parking lot, west of the warmup arena. They are along the north edge. Only trailers who are parking with electrical are to park there. Camping with electrical is $25 per night. If you need an electrical hookup, you must notify Mary by thursday of that week. Spots will be marked with your name. Anyone staying in their trailer and not using electrical must pay $15 per night dry camping.

If you have a particular spot you want, you must pay for it ahead of time in order to reserve that spot. Spots will be reserved on a first come first served basis.
