GOLD KNIGHTS (MIGHTY MITES)

Slayer of the Game: RJ Ruiz

Back on the right track, our Gold Knights had a productive morning against the Cougars. Both sides of the ball were terrific. Finally after a three game endzone drought, RJ Ruiz ran for 45 yards and took it to the house. This sparked our offense, and with time ticking down Jordan Renteria ran a 30 yard bootleg to score once again. Every player added to the defense, especially Dennis Tufo, recording a sack and a tackle for a loss. We kept pressure in Berryessa's back field closing the second half with a shutout.

SILVER KNIGHTS (JR PEE WEES)

Slayer of the Game: "Silver" Offensive Line

Ivan Carrera, Joseph Ronquillo, Michael Madril, Jaykob Jenkins, Gavin Jovero, Ajbir Sra & Julio Lopez

Sometimes you win, sometimes you learn. And learn our Silver Knights did at Berryessa. It took a whole first half before our boys finally lit a spark, got fired up and begin to band together. The first points were scored by way of a Safety from Isaiah DeLuna. As acknowledged by the coaches, the "Silver O-Line" were the stars of the game making way for Noah Taa to run in our single touchdown on the day and an extra point run from Skyden Shugan. Lineman rarely get any credit, but the Knights do recognize the hard work and dedication of our Offensive Lineman, Ivan Carrera, Joseph Ronquillo, Michael Madril, Jaykob Jenkins, Gavin Jovero, Ajbir Sra and Julio Lopez.

WHITE KNIGHTS (PEE WEE)

Slayer of the Game: Offensive Line

Atamai Mata'u, Donovan Coder, Saumalu Pomele, Jayme Pawlovich, Junior Fiaui & Colby Thomas

Too close for comfort! Our White Knights had the stands rockin' and anxious throughout the entire contest. Taashaun Lyons picked up two rushing TDs along with a 60yrd kick-off return in the second half. But the Cougars kept firing back and the defense was put to the test once again. The Offensive Line stood out as the most valuable players this week. Atamai Mata'u, Donovan Coder, Saumalu Pomele, Jayme Pawlovich, Junior Fiaui & Colby Thomas kept their composer allowing several key drives, including a tight punch in run by Elijah Bongbonga. Joshua Velasco booted two 2-point PATs which helped to seal the win, 28-24.

GREEN KNIGHTS (JR MIDGETS)

Slayer of the Game: Joshua Minami

Looking like the Green Knights we all love to watch, our boys came out strong crushing the Cougars 28-0. Gabriel Carerra rushed for two TDs while RB Adolf Sykes added his own TD and kicked a 2-point PAT. QB Joshua Minami commanded the offense showing great leadership and football IQ. Minami scored his own TD in the 4th quarter. Roy Washington lead a strong defensive line recording several tackles, many behind the Berryessa line of scrimmage. The Green Knights will rest this weekend but be ready for Evergreen in two weeks.

BLACK KNIGHTS (MIDGETS)

Slayer of the Game: Jimmy Le & Anthony Valassis

"This was a team victory, everyone did their part and contributed on every play!" said Coach Mo of his Black Knights team. Coming into the game, the undefeated Berryessa Cougars were expecting a win, but the boys from M-Town would not lay down without a fight. The plan was simple...play smart, play hard and play together as One Team on every snap. The Cougars scored early, but Alo Mata'u answered back barreling through the goal line for a short rushing TD in the 2nd quarter. Anthony Valassis showed up big on defense and Jimmy Le controlled the ball both on offense and on defense. The crowd erupted when Nehemaiah Musika went into beast mode causing and recovering two fumbles at crucial points in the game. Jesse Tovar flew to the endzone putting up a TD and then kicking the 2-point PAT giving the Knights a 14-8 lead and the well deserved victory!
