*Note from your director, Coach Maka.

I am very proud to see all of you who braved the less than fortunate weather, during the qualifier. You proved to your peers, adversaries and administration, that rain or shine, disc golf is worth it. You fought for something. Something you want. Just remember, whether following the desire to win or have fun, experience is the most important gain, win or lose. Outside of luck, there is no champion who has no experience. We all start somewhere and have something trying to stop us from growing. Besides bringing your best respect and attitude, what will you allow to stop you from growing?? It's all in our mind and you
